Lisa Michelle Hilbe, 41, of Redwood Falls, Minnesota, died unexpectedly at her home on Friday, March 11, 2005. Michelle was born June 6, 1963, in Dallas, Texas and was the daughter of Richard & Phyllis Carpenter of Fort Towson. She grew up in Lancaster, California and moved to Minnesota in 1999. She had lived in Redwood Falls since February of this year. She had been very involved in the production end of music and was active as a fund raiser for many causes, as well as an advocate for adoptees. Her hobby was cooking.

Survivors include a son, Ricky David Silber of San Diego, California; her mother, Phyllis Carpenter of Fort Towson; sisters, Wyayn Rasmussen and husband Gef of Plymouth, Minn., Mary Dawn Hatch and husband Sheldon of Olivia, Minn.; a special friend, Mark Ellis of Redwood Falls, Minn.; and nieces and nephews who loved their Aunt "Shoosh." She was preceded in death by her father, Richard in 2003; and a sister in infancy.

A memorial service was held at 2:00 p.m. on April 4, 2005, in the First Christian Church, Hugo, with Jim Neeland officiating. Burial was at Fort Towson Cemetery.
